Description of Change: Qorvo Shipping found MSL classifications were not updated after device qualification. Before a product is qualified Qorvo sets the MSL ratings conservatively for customer handling. After qualification the records were not updated for the actual MSL performance.

In every case, the MSL rating of these devices performed better than the temporary classification. Corrected MSL classifications can be found in the attachment in the comments section.

Effective immediately all product will receive the correct classification. Please follow the JEDEC handling instructions per MSL classification. Instructions are also included on the moisture barrier bags.

Reason for Change: MSL Mis-Classification
